

1) Start of our new Season at Hintonburg: The Armenian Sunday-School re-opens

The ACAO's New Season for 2001-2002 at the Hintonburg Community Centre (1064 Wellington St.) will start on September 9, 2001. Our Sunday school re-opens also on September 9 and parents are invited to register their school age children by contacting one of the teachers who are again 'volunteering' their time this year: Kohar Kozanian (745-4524), Anna Dokmajian (731-9623) and Vanda Saghdejian (834-4672).

Note: The Hintonburg Community Centre has been reserved from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m for the following Sundays: Sep. 09, 16, 23, 30, Oct. 14, 21, 28, Nov. 04, 11, 18, 25, Dec. 02, 09 and 16. Everyone is welcome to meet other members, play some card or Nardi (Backgammon) games and/or participate in any impromptu activities that are usually only advertised via the internet by email. So if you do not have an internet connection listed with Antoine Terjanian, please either register with him (748-0676) or ask a member that has such a connection to let you know by phone of any exciting activities we plan.

2) Invitation to the ACAO's Annual General Meeting and Elections of new Executive Committee :

On Sunday September 16, 2001, at 10:30 a.m., your Association will hold its Annual General Meeting presenting you a report on the year's activities and finances (see the attached final and audited statement) and holding elections for four new members of the Executive Committee. We need new strength and energy from our young members so that the leadership of this Association is passed on to the younger generations. Thus ensuring that our Association, which started officially 30 years ago, will continue to succeed and achieve its goals through the younger generations.

Nominations (or volunteers) to fill the four Executive Committee positions can be made by calling Annie Demirjian at 996-3255 or 777-8915. Nominations are also accepted during the AGM.

Our Association has become an essential force in our Community, a free organisation that acts in co-operation with but independently from other Armenian or non-Armenian organisations. Now, more than ever, your Association needs the support of all members of this Community.

This Association belongs to all Armenians, without discrimination, and you are all invited to meet on Sunday mornings other compatriots who have come from the world's four corners to these shores.

Following the elections, your Association will be serving pizzas for all on a BYOD (Bring Your Own Drink) basis.

3) New Website address for the ACAO

Thanks to the volunteer efforts of former ACAO Executive member Dany Zalal, we are pleased to announce the new address for the ACAO website: <http://welcome.to/acao>
